Meriendang Albayano sa Casa Simeon

Merienda is the local term for snack. Filipino culture loves food and to snack in between meals with friends, family, and loved ones is what makes the Filipino culture so tight knit. Merienda is a perfect way to catch up with friends, spend family time, or simply enjoy each others company. Casa Simeon brings you home. Enjoy your merienda in Albay's Heritage House, where love and laughter is shared.

The Alparce ancestral home in Bacacay, Albay was built in the 1920s. This house has been a landmark in Bacacay for generations. As a tribute to Simeon Alparce, his wife Beatrice, his children, his grandchildren, and his great grandchildren, the home he made lovingly is now CASA SIMEON.

DINE WITH US. Where heirloom recipes are revived and where contemporary palates take their inspiration from. The menu in itself is a family project with each generation sharing their best recipes and with each recipe having its own story.

STAY WITH US. Sleep in spacious guest rooms complete with modern conveniences and hotel-grade amenities. Where the warmth of wood and the touch of home is preserved.

UNWIND at the veranda with Mayon Volcano seemingly at your side.

WALK barefoot on ancient floor boards or pedal through rustic alleyways. Step into the library/museum and enjoy the array of books and heirloom pieces.

CELEBRATE Albay's history and heritage.

DINE. LIVE. STAY. BREATHE.

This is the Casa Simeon legacy — family love and laughter shared!
